WORDPRESS DEVELOPER

About Me

I am a dedicated WordPress developer with over a year of experience at Chaudhary Global, where I have gained extensive knowledge and hands-on experience in WordPress development. I'm looking for a challenging role that allows me to leverage my skills and expertise in Elementor, WP Bakery, and Figma-to-WordPress conversions. With strong expertise in HTML and CSS, I aim to deliver high-quality web solutions that enhance user experiences and increase client satisfaction.

Experience

Choudhary Globals

At Choudhary Global, I gained valuable experience in WordPress development, specializing in creating and customizing websites tailored to client needs. I honed my skills in using Elementor and WP Bakery for design, along with Figma-to-WordPress conversions. This role enhanced my proficiency in HTML and CSS, and taught me the importance of collaboration, problem-solving, and client communication in delivering high-quality, user-friendly web solutions that meet project goals effectively.
